A Slight Cold, Cough Mearseness, or Fore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates ecriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Lough or Stight Lald in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.

Brown's Branchial Fraches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Laughs, Lalds, Branchitis, Hethma, Latarch, the Hacking Cough in Lan-sumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief. The United Prayer Meeting at Exeter Hall took place on the 12th inst., as announced. Rev. Baptist Noel and other ministers participated in the proceedings, and fervent prayers were offered up for peace. Lord Shaftesbury declined to attend the meeting, stating in his reply to an invitation, that it would be interpret-ed as a cloaked rebuke of the British government, and favor the opinion that the country was united in this serious question. He commended the purpose of the meeting, but thought it would be better carried into effect by private and congregational means. At a meeting of the Congregational Board resolutions were adopted deprecating hostilities and calling for arbitration, if diplomacy fails

The Europa sailed at noon yesterday for return, says it is not impossible that France, if asked, may become the mediator, and at the same time the laws of neutrals be revised, provided England, according to the wishes of other European governments, agrees to a modification of the existing code. The Paris correspondent of the London Globe says: M. Thouvenal's dispatch to M. Mercier at Washington is known to have confined the Federal Executive to the simple dilemma: "Are the Southerners belligerents or rebels?" They have been flatly refused any rights in the first capacity, and in the second the right of asylum acquired by political refugees has been set at naught, and France must make the case of the Trent substantially her own.
